

SABO
Training Meeting Minutes #2
6-23-08 4:00PM

President Margaret Busbee called meeting to order.
Minutes were waived
Sheet was passed around for attendance.
Discussed Doug Booker passing and went over our situation in regards to reelecting another Treasurer to replace Doug.

The President stated that Duval County will be using Star Scheduling this year.

Proposed Constitutional amendments were read again and called for a vote.
Kerry Walters suggested that we postpone until July meeting, as he felt that we needed more input.

The president stated that everyone had been notified, and we were correct in our process and in order to be fair, the new Vice President/Asst. Commissioner we needed to take a vote. Several other members agreed with Ms Busbee on this matter.

Ms Busbee stated that in the earlier meeting when the amendments had been read and were open for discussion that was little if no discussion. She also stated that if there had been she would have agreed with Mr. Walters as to maybe waiting to a later date for voting.

The amendments were all voted on and passed by a majority of the people present.
Ms Busbee said she would notify Mr. Williams of his new responsibilities.
Ms Busbee announced our next meeting date and time, and also that we would be hosting a Field Clinic at Providence High School in the fall.

The meeting was then turned over to Jay Petty for training.
After the training was complete meeting was adjourned
